Options for Washington's undocumented students

2012 federal executive order

- Allows certain young people to avoid deportation and to work for a two-year period.
- Federal government rescinded on 9/5/17, but injunctions have kept it alive.
- No longer accepting new apps.

DACA

2003 Washington State law

- Gives certain undocumented students in-state tuition.
- Any student can qualify.
- U.S. citizens, permanent residents, non-citizens, F visa students.

HB 1079

DACA residency standard

DACA
(current or expired)

Same residency process
as US citizens in WA

- (a) Independent students (residency definition) must maintain a domicile in Washington for one year for purposes other than education.
- (b) Dependent students (residency definition) must have at least one parent or guardian who has maintained a domicile in Washington for one year. Undocumented parents can have a WA domicile.

HB 1079 residency standard

WASFA Privacy Statement

The Washington Student Achievement Council (WSAC) administers state financial aid including the State Need Grant and the Washington Application for State Financial Aid, or WASFA, for DREAMers. The Council is committed to providing opportunities and support to ensure every Washington student is able to pursue education beyond high school.

Regarding concerns that students, parents, and other partners may have about the confidentiality of information submitted on the WASFA, the purpose of the application is to provide eligibility information to colleges and universities in Washington that offer State Need Grant.

WSAC shares application information with campuses listed by the student so those schools may determine eligibility for resident tuition and financial aid.

Campuses are not permitted to use the information for other purposes or share the data with other parties.

WSAC is committed to protecting the confidentiality of the information and privacy of students and families. Washington is a state committed to providing opportunities to students and protecting the rights of families.
