

SB5100: A Year Later

Johanna Dwyer, Dean Student Financial Services
South Puget Sound Community College

Wendy Joseph, Director Student Aid & Scholarships
Clover Park Technical College

Greg Kerr, School Relations Director
ECMC

WA SB5100 – Required financial education for Washington State students

So, how did it go?

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA

How did you prepare?

“The whole college needs to be invested.”

“It’s financial aid’s problem.”

“What now?”

“Meh. We will wing it.”

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA

How did you prepare?

“We developed something ourselves.”

“We went with a third-party.”

“We aren’t doing anything.”

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA

Student reaction?

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA

Study: South Puget Sound Community College

- Third-party
- Implemented SSO access
- Promoted extensively via technology

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA

Study: South Puget Sound Community College

- Developed a video meet the requirements and introduce students to iGrad
- Video link:
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xKFU_1vn9L0
- SPSCC SB5100 page:
<https://www.igrad.com/landing/washington-students-spcc>

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA

Study: Clover Park Technical College

- Third-party
- Developed in-person sessions
- Coached counselors
- Involved offices outside financial aid
- Curriculum was included in College 102
- Partnering with Faculty to introduce small pieces into the technical program curriculum

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA

Study: Clover Park Technical College

- CPTC SB5100 page:
<https://www.igrad.com/landing/washington-students-cptc>

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA

So, what's next?

- Leverage the law outside financial aid with other offices
- Student advocates
- Generate interest in financial wellness

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA

WFAA Conference 2018
Yakima, WA